N. DEPOT RICHMOND, KY

he Climax==1 year $1

Will Reside in Richmond.

G. W. Hutchison, of Quicksand, Ky., who has been appointed storekeeper, gauger in the Revenue service, has moved to this city, and he and family are now located on Woodland avenue.

Cottage Sold.

Conductor Joe Harris has sold his cottage on Third street to Mrs. S. L. Midkiff, price private. This is a very desirable piece of property and has been occupied for the past several years by Mr. Tevis Hugely.

Chicken Stealing Charged.

Tom Campbell, negro, was arrested in Winchester, Monday night, by Policeman Strode on a charge of charge of chicken stealing. It is alleged the man stole two crates of chickens at Richmond and was in the act of shipping them to Belle Shearer, a negro woman, of this city, when he was caught by the Richmond officers, from whom he escaped.—Winchester Sun.

City Officials.

In the list of officials who were inducted into office last week, the Climax inadvertently omitted several names of newly elected city officers, as follows: T. C. O'Neill succeeds L. T. Wilson as city collector; L. P. Evans succeeds J. W. Crooke as treasurer; E. H. Bybee succeeds Thos. Berry as city assessor. The following councilmen will serve during the next two years: Samuel A. Deatherage, T. S. Todd, T. T. Covington, Emil Lorisich, Robert Golden and W. T. Vaughn.

Simon Bolivar Buckner Dead.

General Simon Bolivar Buckner, last surviving Lieutenant-General of the Confederate army, died last Thursday night at his home, Glen Lily, in Hart county. He was born in 1823 on the farm where he died, and during his long and distinguished career, he was an American soldier in Mexico, an officer in the Confederate army, Governor of his native State and the nominee of the National Democratic party for Vice President of the United States. He will be buried at Frankfort.

To Farmers And Sportsmen.

As the season for quail shooting ended on Jan. 1, the attention of farmers and hunters is directed to the fact that game birds will need protection in the event of a severe winter. You are earnestly requested to assist in this matter during the periods when the ground is covered by snow and sleet by feeding flocks that you know use on your land. No matter how cold the weather may be birds will not freeze so long as they can get plenty to eat, and therefore it behooves all interested in the propagation of quail to see that this protection is given them. J. D. Christopher, Fish and Game Warden

School Lunches.

Last winter school lunches were prepared and served by several of the good women of Richmond for some 40 needy school children. This work was carried on for more than three months by means of contributions solicited from time to time, at the sacrifice of much time by those who had the work in charge.

We are confident that many people will want to contribute to this fund this winter again. However, no personal solicitation will be made. The newspapers of the city will accept voluntary contributions and publish from week to week the names of contributors and the amounts given. These funds will be turned over to a committee from the Woman's Club, which will have charge of all receipts and expenditures.

There are, this winter, about the same number of needy children to be fed. By furnishing lunches to them we can double the attendance among them, as was done last year, class work will be greatly improved and real suffering relieved.

Very Respectfully,

D. W. BRIDGES,
Supt. City Schools.

Colds To Be Taken Seriously.

Intelligent people realize that common colds should be treated promptly. If there is sneezing and chilliness with hoarseness, tickling throat and coughing begin promptly the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is effective, pleasant to take, checks a cold, and stops the cough which causes loss of sleep and lowers the vital resistance. All druggists.

House For Rent.

Interesting Session of City Council.

One of the most interesting meetings of the city council in recent months was held at City Hall Thursday night, the mayor and all members being present. A contract for macadam for the next two years was awarded P. N. Manahan. Bonds of the city officials were submitted and approved.

A question of much interest to the council and one which has been agitated for some time, is the advisability of erecting a city jail and workhouse. This matter will be seriously considered by this body during the next few months and tax payers of Richmond should confer or meet with the council and assist it with their advice as to the best course to pursue in the matter.

Another question of great importance before the body was the construction of brick streets from the postoffice to the L. & N. depot and around the public square. The cost of such streets will amount to $30,000 or $40,000, and it was suggested that the tax payers of the city pay one-third of this amount and the property owners along the proposed route pay the remaining two thirds. This question should interest every citizen of Richmond, as it will undoubtedly be more economical in the long run to construct brick streets.

The advisability of purchasing an automobile fire apparatus was also discussed, as was the question of a "white way" for Main street.

The monthly accounts were audited and ordered paid.

The following committees for the ensuing two years were announced: Finance—Covington, Lorisich, Vaughn, Streets—Lorisich, Vaughn, Covington. Grievances—Deatherage, Golden and Todd.

Fire Department—Todd, Vaughn and Golden.

Police—Lorisich, Deatherage and Covington.

Water and Light—Vaughn, Lorisich and Deatherage.

Building—Vaughn, Golden, Todd.

Sewerage—Golden, Todd, Covington.

Judiciary—City Attorney Chenaault, Mayor Rice.

Charity—Mayor Rice and Mrs. Lucy Lackey Moore.

Old fashioned New Orleans Molasses and Country Sorghum. 16-1f. Lackey & Todd.

Hogs Fattened on Peanuts.

Farm and Fireside prints in its current issue an interesting article entitled "Peanut Culture in Oklahoma," showing how Spanish peanuts can be grown in various parts of this country and used as feed for hogs. Finishing the hogs for market or getting them ready for butchering for home consumption has put the farmers of Oklahoma and in the semi-arid regions of the Southwest to a severe test during the past three years. Owing to dry weather and hot winds the grain crop during the past season was nearly a failure in those parts of the country. Hog raisers, finding that they could no longer depend on the grain crop to finish their pork, found that Spanish peanuts met the requirements.

The article continues as follows: The peanut is one of the best drought-resisting crops that can be raised, in fact it will stop growing and wait for the rain. The plants will wilt under the sun of the day, but will be fresh and green the next morning. It is very productive and will do well on most any kind of soil, but is well adapted to a light, sandy loam having a clay subsoil.

In the summer of 1911 a farmer planted four acres of peanuts and, although not a drop of rain fell for 45 days, this crop continued to grow, and 40 bushels per acre were harvested. In 1912, on the same kind of land and with half the cultivation of corn, he gathered 75 bushels of peanuts and 20 bushels of corn per acre.

The most profitable way of raising peanuts is to plant the crop, and after the nuts are filled and matured, cut the hay and cure like clover and let the hogs harvest the nuts.

Last year the writer had a small plot of peanuts, a little less than an acre. On Sept. 15 the vines were cut and six hogs, averaging 90 pounds, were turned on it to harvest the nuts. On Nov. 15 they were again weighed and showed a gain of 750 pounds, equivalent to $35 at the price hogs were then selling for. They were then taken off the peanuts and fed Kaffir corn for two weeks and were ready for market.

While bigger gains and more profit can be secured by feeding peanuts in this than in any other way, peanuts alone will not put the hogs in the best shape for market, as the flesh will be soft, and some grain feeding for a week or ten days is advisable.

The Words That Won.

In London one of the weekly papers offered a prize for the best list of strong words to the number of ten. The announcement specified that but ten words would be considered from any one person and a committee of literary men would select from the numbers offered the ten strongest words in the English language.

These are the words that won: Hate, blood, hungry, dawn, coming, gone, love, dead, alone, forever. Do you think of any stronger, fuller of suggestion?

We have arranged for a Special Sale

On the celebrated Stearns & Foster Mattress and are offering this most Comfortable, Durable and Sanitary of all Mattresses, in selected patterns of the best qualities of Satin-finish, Dust-proof Tickings—WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE.

Beware of so-called "Special Sales" on "Cotton-felt" or "Felt" Mattresses—said to be the "genuine kind" and offered at such ridiculously low prices as are sometimes seen displayed. You do not know WHAT sort of material has been hastily STUFFED into the ticking. From a Sanitary standpoint, it may be vile; unfit for any person to sleep upon. As for genuine Comfort and Durability, such Mattresses are utterly worthless. It don't pay to buy them.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses have a laced opening (Pat. applied for) through which you can see and examine the inside of the Mattress you GET. That's the safe way to buy a Mattress. You know what you are getting.

Stearns & Foster Mattresses are made of Clean, Sanitary Cotton; felted into hundreds of little webs forming many Springy, Buoyant layers standing nearly three feet high. These layers are then LAID BY HAND and compressed to ONE-SIXTH their original height and encased in the ticking; then tufted to just the proper tension so as to be Soft, yet Firm, half yielding to your figure, but supporting it in perfect relaxation.

You will say—

"I never Knew a Mattress could be so Comfortable."

That's just what satisfied users of Stearns & Foster Mattresses are saying.

You owe it to yourself to get one and enjoy rest that is Refreshing—Comfortable—Healthful.

You don't have to be put to the expense and inconvenience of sending a Stearns & Foster Mattress away to be "Made Over" or "Renovated." They never require it. An occasional Sun Bath keeps them fresh and clean.

Don't Fail to attend this Sale. Come today.

Select the Mattress you want—NOW. Don't put up longer with that old uncomfortable Mattress.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

JANUARY 14, 1914

So that everybody may get a general idea as to the provisions of the administration currency bill, Frederic C. Howe in the December Metropolitan has boiled it down to its absolute essentials as follows:

1. To cheapen the cost of credit to the business men and farmers of the country.
2. To make credit available on more equal terms and to free it from control by a few large banking groups, and especially by Wall Street.
3. To provide for the easy expansion and contraction of the currency and credit to seasonal and other industrial emergencies.
4. To mobilize the credit of a region and keep the deposits of each section within that section and prevent their flowing to Wall Street to be used for speculative rather than for industrial purposes.
5. To retire the United States bond secured currency of the national banks and to substitute therefor currency based upon the currently created wealth of the country.

Who can object to such a reform measure but the Wall Street money gamblers?

THAT was a awful waste when County Judge Shackelford, of Madison, poured ten gallons of brandy, which he had confiscated from a bootlegger, into the streets of Richmond. Some of the circuit judges have been worried about what they should do with contraband goods of the wet character and the suggestion has been made that if they will set it out in the court house yards of the dry towns it will soon evaporate. Had Judge Shackelford thought of that plan?—Winchester Sun.

No doubt this idea has evolved in the mind of Judge Shackelford, but his honor is so tender hearted he does not desire to inflict unnecessary punishment on those wanting a drink by permitting the air to become permeated with the aroma of brandy.

THAT Kentucky needs to be relieved of its excessive indebtedness no one will gainsay, yet the Climax, and we believe a majority of the tax payers, will regret any action on the part of the General Assembly to practice economy to the injury of the State school system. The remarkable strides made during the past few years in the way of advancing the cause of education has elevated Kentucky until today she does not stand, as a few years previous, so near the bottom in the list of illiterate States, and while we desire economy and a lifting of the burdensome taxes of the State, let no action be taken by the Legislature that will jeopardize the progress that has been made toward a better school system and a more enlightened people.

LET reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in the schools, in the seminaries and colleges; written in primers, spelling books and almanacs; let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in the Legislative halls and enforced in the courts of justice; and in short, let it become the political religion of the nation; and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay, of all sexes and tongues, and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars.—Abraham Lincoln.

THE relative value of a woman and a hog was illustrated in Wisconsin recently, says the Midway Clipper. A woman wrote to the governor that she had a large family to support and was suffering with tuberculosis, and desired State aid. About the same time a letter was received from a man who desired aid for a hog which showed symptoms of cholera. The governor sent word to the woman that no appropriation had been made for tuberculosis victims, and at the same time an expert was hurriedly dispatched with a supply of cholera serum to the rescue of the hog. This incident tells its own story without further comment.

Gov. McCREARY, in his message to the Legislature called special attention to economy, education, a fair tax system, agricultural courses in common schools, a uniform text book law, liberality to the State Fair, arbitration in labor disputes, better public roads, humanity in prisons, representation at the Panama Exposition, the conservation of our natural resources, including forests, fish and game.

The Louisville Commercial Club has decided to start a movement for a constitutional convention. A two Legislatures must approve, a convention can not be held earlier than 1919. A bill has been prepared for the present Legislature prohibiting misuse of the American flag for advertising or any other purpose, also to compel sanitary towels in public places.

A LADY teacher in Philadelphia declares that two words are enough for any spelling lesson. When we get suffrage that woman will one day be President of the United States.

THE Huntington, W. Va., youth who has just married the seventh time at 31 years of age, evidently believes in living up to his past resolutions.

BIG business should realize, however, that President Wilson has promised to let it alone so long as it is good and behaves itself.

LONDON boasts of a cock who writes verses; a still greater prodigy would be a poetess who could cook.

If Vic Huerta doesn't hurry up, he'll have to head his army in Texas.

LET's make 1914 a record breaker on the side of community progress.

Caldwell High School Notes.

On Tuesday afternoon our chapel was open to friends of the school and a program was acceptably rendered by the primary department students, interspersed with music by the High School orchestra. Mr. Martin gave a stirring address on Sanitation. Light refreshments were served, after which a Mother's Club was organized, of which Mrs. Harvey Douglas was made president. This is an important step towards the betterment of our school. We hope all the mothers will take part in this and by so doing help in an uplift for our town. A committee from the Woman's Club has undertaken to serve soup for us during the winter, beginning next Monday. The soup will be furnished free to about 40 needy children and at a small price to those who can pay. This is a noble thing and the teachers can fully testify to the splendid results of this movement last winter. We are pleased at every indication of interest on the part of the citizens shown in our school.

The Caldwell High School faculty met with Alma Scribner Tuesday night, Joel Chandler Harris being the author discussed. The meeting was unusually pleasant. The engagement of Miss Stella Phelps and Mr. E. C. Wines, Jr., was announced. An examination of applicants for the vacancy in the faculty was held Friday. Those who took the examination were Misses Mary Martin, Geneva McCarthy, of Richmond, and Misses Maupin and Bogard.

Miss Alma Scribner entertained the faculty of Caldwell High school on last Tuesday night, at which time the engagement of Miss Stella Phelps and Mr. Edwin C. Wines, Jr., was announced. No date has been set, other than the wedding is to be some time in February.

Miss Phelps is one of Richmond's most attractive and accomplished girls. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Phelps and for several years has been one of the valued teachers at the High school. Her fiancé is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wines, and is a rising young druggist. He is extremely popular with a wide circle of friends.

Dr. and Mrs. D. H. Scanlan and family left this morning for Meridian, Miss., where they will live in the future. Dr. Scanlan having accepted the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church there. Last night they were tendered a farewell reception by the congregation here in the lecture room of the church. The room was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and evergreens, and by the hours of the hour, many of the friends and admirers of this splendid couple, called to bid them God-speed in their new home. Dainty refreshments were served and the affair was much enjoyed, though regretfully so, in as much as it meant the giving up of a beloved pastor and his estimable wife.

Dr. Scanlan endeavored himself to the people of all churches, and during his four years residence here, he did much for the cause of good and right in our community. The Climax joins in with hosts of others in wishing them every blessing in their new field.

Church Notes

The Sunday school teachers of the Christian church were entertained on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Wren Grinstead, at their home on the Summit.

The Ladies' Missionary Society of the Baptist church, was delightfully entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. James Smith. After the study, Mrs. Hoskinson and Miss Sara Quisenberry gave delightful musical numbers.

The Rev. Dr. Davis Smart, a noted Methodist minister, died after a prostration at Charlottesville, Va., Sunday last. Dr. Smart was at one time prominently connected with the Louisville Conference and was well known in this State.

Elder E. B. Barnes, of the Christian church, is conducting during January a "Church Attendance Campaign." Special subjects both at morning and evening Sunday services have been selected for discussion. The subject last Sunday morning was "Educational Sunday." For education in the business of the church. Evening subject, "The Problem of Poverty." A sermon for men and women who have souls. Other subjects will be announced in this column from week to week.

Rev. J. Randall Paris, the newly elected superintendent of religious education at the Broadway Christian church and who for about a year has been engaged in Bible school work in Atlanta, Ga., has arrived in Lexington and will take up his new duties at once. An installation service will be held at the Sunday morning service, Prof. W. C. Bower, of Transylvania University, making an address. Rev. Paris is well known in Lexington, being a graduate of Bible College and is a native of Kentucky, having been born at Kingston, Madison county. He is an earnest worker and is expected to be a valuable addition to the religious working forces of Lexington.—Lexington Herald.

Dr. Quisenberry's subject at the Baptist church Sunday evening will be "A Live Dog is Better Than a Dead Lion." At the morning service he will discuss "Richmond's Greatest Need."

The attendance at the Bible School of the Christian church was 261; offering $12.75. At the morning service the pastor preached on "Christian Education" and an offering of $50 was received. At night a large congregation heard the discussion on the "Problem of Poverty," which awakened much interest. Next Sunday night the second in the series will be "The Problem of the Prison, or Man's Inhumanity to Man." We hope the public will show an unusual interest in this series.

From January 21-23, a Bible School Institute will be held at the Christian Church; conducted by Evangelist W. E. Frazee, of Louisville, Prof. Bower, of Lexington, and other specialists. We invite all the churches and schools of the city and county to co-operate with us. Many methods and plans of work will be discussed, and the entire work of the modern S. S. will be considered in detail. The sessions are free and open to the public.

Mail Order Ten Commandments.

The following ten commandments are offered for guidance of catalogue-house patrons:

1. You shall sell your farm products for cash whenever you can, but not to us. We do not buy from you.
2. You shall believe our statement and buy all you need from us, because we want to be good to you, although we are not personally acquainted with you.
3. You shall send the money in advance to give us a chance to get the goods from the factory with your money; meanwhile you will have to wait patiently a few weeks, as that is our business method.
4. You shall apply to your nearest town to aid you in building good roads, so you can conveniently haul the goods from the depot, for we do not build any country roads.
5. You shall buy church bells and church furniture from us and forward the money in advance, for this is our business method, and you shall collect from the business men in your vicinity as much money as you can for the benefit of your churches, as it is against our rules to donate for building country churches.
6. You shall buy your tools from us and be your own merchants, in order to drive the mechanics from your vicinity, for we wish it so.
7. You shall induce your neighbor to buy everything from us, as we have room for more money—the less money left in your community, the sooner we can put your local merchants out of business and charge you any price that we please.
8. You shall look often at the beautiful pictures in our catalogue, so your wishes will increase and so you will send in a big order, tho' you are not in the immediate need of goods, otherwise you might have some money left to buy necessary goods from your local merchants.
9. You shall have the merchants who repair the goods you buy from us book the bill so you can send the money for his labor to us for new goods, otherwise he will not notice our influence.
10. You shall in case of sickness or need apply to your local dealers for aid or credit, as we don't know you or care to.—Inland Grocer.

TO THE TOBACCO GROWERS OF MADISON AND ADJOINING COUNTIES:

We have just closed another successful week's sales, with the market congested for half of the week, yet prices have remained strong through it all. We sold over our floor during the week just closed 451,000 pounds and daily average of nearly 93,000 pounds, and a general floor average of $13.25 for the entire week, which we feel sure is the best general floor average had in the State taking everything into consideration. The buyers have handled the tobacco sold over this market and even when all houses were congested these excellent buyers kept the market right up to its usual high prices, for which we and you feel most grateful. That we have the best market in Richmond no one will question, and the Madison House, "the Pioneer," still leads in prices and pounds, as she hopes to continue to do.

The following are a nong the best sales of the week and these have been taken at random, as we have gone along, there are many others just good. Ask the man who sold with us.

Zack Simpson, Garrard county, sold 333 lbs at 17c, 210 lbs at 14c, 455 lbs at 20c, 225 lbs at 21c, and 250 lbs at 20 1/2c, general average of nearly $20 per hundred. Gibbs & Lear, Garrard county, 2200 pounds at an average of $18.50, one basket of this bringing 25c. Gulley & Reynolds, 3555 lbs at a general average of $18.30. Ashby Sebastian, Garrard county, 3500 pounds at a general average of $16. James Richardson, Estill county, sold 1100 pounds average $17.90. Hickborn Bros., Madison county, sold 3430 lbs at general average of $17.26. Hendren and Dawson, Madison county, 1390 lbs at average of $18. Million & Long, Madison county, 5920 lbs at $16.55 per hundred. We are proud of this week's record, which is remarkable, when for the first or second time our house was congested. We wish to thank those who waited patiently for us to unload them, and to ask those of our friends who went elsewhere for the reason they could not wait, that we appreciate their interest just the same and the next time we will be prepared to unload them earlier.

Finally we wish to say, that we only deal in facts not fancies, we get our records from our books, not from other and less reliable quarters. We have every reason to believe that the week just ahead of us will even exceed the high water mark that we have reached in prices thus far. Thanking you once again, we are very gratefully

If You are Subject to Colds

This Editorial will Interest You.

A Great Majority of People Get One or More Colds Every Season and It is of Vital Interest to All to Learn How to Avoid and Relieve Colds Quickly, Since Colds are Said to be Contagious.

Some people think colds are only caught through exposure. This in return is contradicted by the fact that Arctic explorers are peculiarly free from colds. It is more generally accepted that colds are the result of civilized life, due to super-heated rooms and a very rapid change in temperature which causes the nerve centers to be depressed, and still more largely due to contagion—one member of a family imparting a cold to another by sneezing or coughing.

A cold means nothing if relieved quickly. That such a purpose may be accomplished, a quick aid to a cold is an essential. A remedy especially devised to relieve colds quickly is PERUNA.

PERUNA contains such ingredients that have an especially beneficial influence upon the inflamed mucous membranes and the quicker these mucous membranes are given the benefit of a remedy like PERUNA, the quicker the relief and the less contagion.

A neglected cold may become a serious menace to one's own life, and far worse, may endanger one's family.

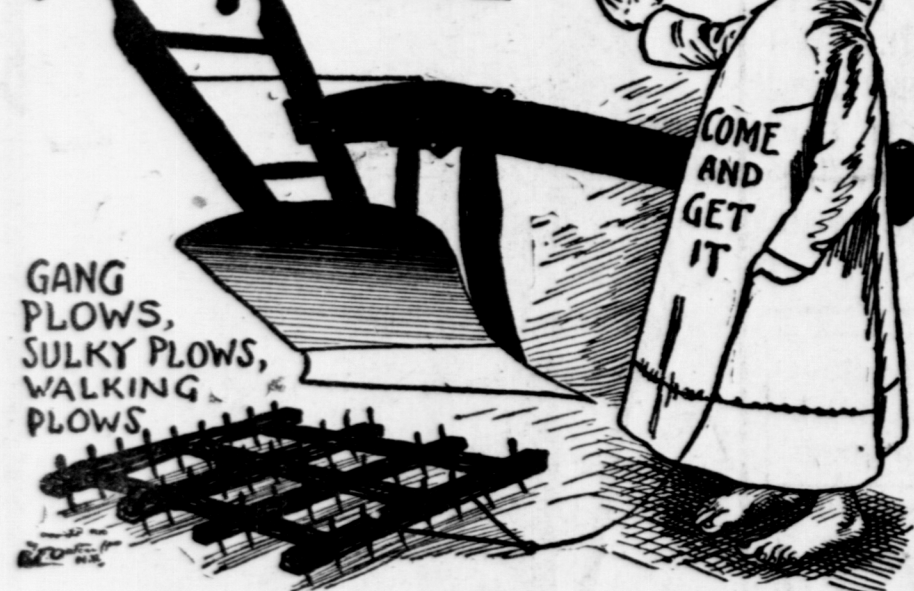

We insure our homes against fire, our lives against death. Why should we not insure ourselves against colds if possible by having a medicine in the family chest that can be used at once?

PERUNA is a reliable household remedy for colds and should be in every home, for there should be a desire to combat a cold as quickly as possible. This is enlightened hygiene.

People who are feeble and run down are more subject to colds than persons in normal health. Such persons need outdoor life and PERUNA to help build up a strong constitution. If you have a poor appetite that is often a warning that you probably need a tonic like Peruna for Peruna aids the digestive organs. When your appetite is fair and work and exercise do not quickly tire you, your susceptibility to colds diminishes very much.

Persons who object to liquid medicines can now obtain PERUNA TABLETS.

Which Shall It Be?

This story of the love of fathers and mothers, told with such tender grace, was written by Mrs. Beers. Her maiden name was Eliot, and she was descended from John Eliot, the "Apostle of the Indians," who first preached Christianity to the Red Indians, and first translated the Bible into their tongue. Indeed, this Bible in the Indian language was the first Bible ever published in America. That was in 1663. Mrs. Beers lived from 1827 to 1879. The poem shows that John Eliot's loving spirit was animating his descendants after two hundred years.

"Which shall it be? Which shall it be?" I looked at John—John looked at me; (Dear, patient John, who loves me yet As well as though my locks were jet); And when I found that I must speak, My voice seemed strangely low and weak;

"Tell me again what Robert said." And when I, listening, bent my head, "This is his letter: 'I will give, A house and land while you shall live, If, in return, from out your seven, One child to me for aye is given.'"

I looked at John's old garments worn, I thought of all that John had borne Of poverty and work and care, Which I, though willing, could not share;

I thought of seven mouths to feed, Of seven little children's need, And then of this. "Come, John," said I,

"We'll choose among them as they lie Asleep;" so, walking hand in hand, Dear John and I surveyed our band. First to the cradle lightly stepped, Where the new nameless baby slept, "Shall it be Baby?" whispered John. I took his hand and hurried on To Lilly's crib. Her sleeping grasp Held her old doll within its clasp; Her dark curls lay like gold alight, A glory 'gainst the pillow white.

Softly her father stopped to lay His rough hand down in loving way, When dream or whisper made her stir, Then huskily said John, "Not her, not her!" We stopped beside the trundle-bed, And one long ray of lamplight shed Athwart the boyish faces there, In sleep so pitiful and fair; I saw on Jamie's rough, red cheek A tear undried. Ere John could speak, "He's but a baby, too," said I And kissed him as we hurried by. Pale, patient Robbie's face Still in his sleep bore suffering's trace, "No, for a thousand crowns, not him!" We whispered, while our eyes were dim.

Poor Dick! bad Dick! our wayward son, Turbulent, reckless, idle one— Could he be spared? Nay; He who gave Bids us befriend him to his grave; "Only a mother's heart can be Patient enough for such as he; And so," said John, "I would not dare To send him from her bedside prayer." Then stole we softly up above And knelt by Mary, child of love. "Perhaps for her 'twould better be," I said to John. Quite silently He lifted up a curl astray Across her cheek in wilful way, And shook his head; "Nay, love, not thee."

The while my heart beat audibly. Only one more, our eldest lad, Trusty and truthful, good and glad— So like his father. "No, John, no— I cannot, will not, let him go." And so we wrote, in courteous way, We could not give one child away; And afterward toil lighter seemed, Thinking of that which we dreamed. Happy in truth that not one face We missed from its accustomed place; Thankful to work for all the seven, Trusting the rest to One in Heaven.

STOP CATARRH!

Unless Properly Treated With Hyomei This Disease May Become Serious.

If you have catarrh, indicated by sniffing, stopped up head, droppings in the throat and morning choking, there is an irritated state of the mucous membrane which affords an ideal condition for the growth of disease germs.

Do not allow these dangerous germs to begin the destruction of your health. The easiest, simplest, quickest, surest and cheapest way to check catarrh is by breathing Hyomei. This wonderful medicated air treatment does not upset the stomach, but is breathed in through the Hyomei inhaler, directly following and surely destroying all disease germs that may have been inhaled—the tissues of the throat, nose and lungs are quickly healed and vitalized.

Money refunded by B. L. Middleton to anyone whom Hyomei fails to benefit. A complete outfit costs but $1.

Announcement.

The Kentucky Utilities Company wish to announce that in accordance with their customary broad policy of "Customers First" that the usual low prices on all things electrical will prevail during the year Nineteen Hundred and Fourteen. For your information they wish to state that this includes electric irons, grills, coffee percolators, toasters, vacuum cleaners, lamps, (Mazda, and other) fans, motors, etc. The Company's District Manager invites criticism of service rendered, all such complaints receiving careful and prompt consideration at all times.

Read And Heed This.

Money kept in the community helps everyone in that community. It is a part of the common fund on which any one with anything to sell—merchandise, labor, farm products—can draw. Money that is sent away from home is withdrawn from the common fund. It helps to impoverish the entire community. Send all the money away and all the people in the community would be "broke." The dollar you spend with the local merchant will continue to circulate in the neighborhood, paying the grocer, doctor, carpenter, teacher. Ultimately it may return to you to be again started on its journey of purchase and payment. The dollar sent to the mail order houses goes to swell the bank account of a concern in Chicago or New York. It is lost to your community forever. Your neighbor can't get it, and you will never see it again.

DO IT NOW!

Richmond People Should Not Wait Until It Is Too Late.

The appalling death rate from kidney disease is due largely to the fact that the little kidney troubles are usually neglected until they become serious. The slight symptoms often give place to chronic disorders and the sufferer may slip gradually into some serious form of kidney complaint.

If you suffer from backache, headaches, dizzy spells; if the kidney secretions are irregular of passage and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. Help the kidneys at once.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially for kidney disorders—they act where others fail. Over one hundred thousand people have recommended them. Here's a case at home:

Mrs. Goodwin, 136 Big Hill avenue, Richmond, Kentucky, says: "Although I never had occasion to use a kidney remedy myself, Doan's Kidney Pills have been taken in my family with fine results. They were procured at Middleton's Drug Store, and used for backache and irregular kidney action. Good results were had."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Letter From Former Madisonian.

Spring Lick, Ky.
Editor Climax:—After an absence of 15 months I have had the pleasure of a recent visit to my daughter, two sons and relatives, near Red House. I had also the great pleasure of being in your city once more, but the weather was so inclement that I got to see only a few of my acquaintances during my stay in Richmond. I found it the same good old city and county and discovered a great many improvements had taken place since leaving, especially in Richmond. It was very gratifying to me to see that the tobacco market had grown to such proportions as to necessitate the erection of another large and commodious loose leaf warehouse and to see the building of a large brick structure to be occupied by one of your wholesale grocery firms, an evidence of a growing business.

I notice the fact that there are but four towns in Kentucky that can boast of as good railroad accommodations as Richmond; for instance, 16 passenger trains arrive and depart each day, besides accommodation and freight trains.

I was informed that you would soon have another stock yard, and best of all, I did not see a single drunk person during my stay in your city, a blessing few people can realize, who live in wet towns. I have resided for 15 months near a city where whisky is sold and can see all of the damaging results that accrue from the sale of intoxicants. Let me say to all in your town, where you are blessed with magnificent schools, to forever bar from your city the greatest curse of all curses—whisky.

It was a pleasant to meet and make the trip from Richmond to Lexington with Kentucky's next Auditor, H. H. Colyer. His selection for this office would be a wise move on the part of the State, as a more capable official could not be selected.

I would like to say more of the good people of old Madison, but it will not do to say it all at once.

Yours truly,

JAS. DEERING.

Unreliable Statistics.

An enterprising statistician up in New York discovers that out of 230 co-respondents that have figured in the divorce courts in that State the past year, 210 of them were blonde, and seeks to draw a bromidic conclusion therefrom. He evidently has not taken into consideration the peroxide influence as affecting the result.

Ain't It The Truth?

The Cynthiana Democrat says whiskers are coming back into style because they are the only things that men can wear that women won't.

Barred From The Mail.

Postmaster General Barleson has barred from the mails all package containing the body of any wild animal or bird killed in violation of the laws of and State, Territory or district. Game animals or birds may be shipped by mail when they have been taken lawfully, but not beyond the second parcels post zone. All such parcels, including those containing furs, skins, skulls, meat and plumage of birds, may be accepted for mailing only when their contents are marked plainly on the outside of the package.

Tears.

If every wish were granted,
If every hope came true,
If every seed we planted
A lovely blossom grew;
If every day were sunny,
And every one were wise,
There'd be no sweet in honey,
There'd be no joys to prize.

If we knew that tomorrow
Would be just like today,
With not one touch of sorrow,
No care to spoil the play;
No doubt and no misgiving,
No heart-aches and no fears,
Then vain were all our living—
We'd crave the joy of tears.

We'd sigh for secret sorrow,
We'd long to feel the rain,
And we should yearn to borrow
The blessedness of pain.
For more than all the pleasure
That came and quickly fled
Adown the years we treasure,
The tears that we have shed.

Must Have Been Rich.

The following card of thanks appeared in the Center, Mo., Herald:
"We wish to thank those who offered and assisted us in the death of our uncle."

Mules Per Pound.

The Lebanon Enterprise says Buckler & Sanders bought Tuesday of John E. and Tom Thompson 21 head of mules at 18c per pound. The average price per mule was $175.

Somewhat Mixed.

A justice of the peace, who was about to perform a marriage ceremony, got his rituals mixed: "Madam," he said, addressing the bride, "do you agree to take this man for your lawful and wedded husband?" After the young lady had replied in the affirmative, the justice turned to the bridegroom and delivered himself as follows: "Prisoner at the bar, what have you to say in your own defense?"

For dyspepsia, or national ailment, use Burdock Blood Bitters. Recommended for strengthening digestion, purifying the blood. At all drug stores. 50c a bottle.

Sheep Thieves

There are robbers in your pastures and they are stealing your profits. If your sheep are infested with worms, you should stop the loss. Worms make poor wool, few lambs, less weight of mutton. They starve your stock, make them sick and finally kill.

SAL-VET
A Guaranteed Medicated Salt
Will Kill Worms

Sold under a guarantee to kill and expel all free stomach and intestinal worms. Will put sheep, hogs and all stock in prime condition. Tones up the system, sharpens the appetite, helps to put on fat quickly. Different from all other worm remedies. Safe, sure and costs little—1-12 cent a day per hog or sheep. Use Sal-Vet and your stock will doctor themselves.

For Sale by
W. D. Buckley & Co.

Value of Rheuma From The Court.

Judge Barhoost was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Had Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhoost, of Fort Loramie, Ohio:

"After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

Much Needed Law.

One of the most important measures that should be passed by the Kentucky Legislature is a corrupt practice act. We have had many evidences in recent years of the necessity of such a law. Judge Benton, at Winchester, was handicapped in the prosecution of bribery in elections by our very deficient laws on this subject. At Bowling Green and at other places attempts have been made by the courts to stop bribery in elections. In nearly every contested election case during the past year, including those for judicial offices, corruption was shown. The use of money in elections has grown to such an alarming proportion that in some sections of the State men of means have been bankrupted in running for office by the large sums of money they have been forced to spend to secure office.

Under the laws of Kentucky a man can be convicted of murder or house-breaking, or any other felony, on the testimony of one witness, while for bribery it requires two witnesses. If one witness can convict a man of murder, certainly one witness should be sufficient to convict of bribery.

The corrupt practice act should make the punishment for buying votes very much greater than for selling votes. A fine of $25 should be the limit for selling, while the fine for buying should be $500 and a jail sentence.

Another provision which would aid in bringing about clean elections would be a provision which would prevent any citizen from qualifying for office when it is shown that he either directly or indirectly used money to secure the office.

A stringent corrupt practice act would be one of the best and most useful laws that the Kentucky Legislature could pass when its meets in its regular session.—Elizabethtown News.

Bustles Coming Back, Girls.

They're coming back—yes, bustles! They'll be the "real thing" next spring, according to suit and cloak sharps of New York at a fashion show there, at which the latest Paris fashions were on view. Four of the concoctions have reached America, and to make it worse, all four still have the hobble effect about the feet.

Ahead of The Times.

The funmakers who, two years ago, jollied Representative Konig, of Baltimore, because he incorporated in his sketch in the Congressional Directory that he was "married and lived with his wife," are respectfully referred to the new income tax feature of the tariff act, which require a man claiming an exemption of $1,000, because married, to state whether he is living with his wife. If they are living apart, the exemption fails. Mr. Konig was merely two years ahead of the country in supplying domestic data.—Boston Globe.

New Parcels Post Rates.

Postmasters have been instructed by the Third Assistant Postmaster General as to the changes in parcels post rates and regulations, effective from Jan. 1st, by order of Postmaster General Burdick. The orders provide for a reduction of rates in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth zones and for an increase in weight limit to 50 pounds on parcels mailed for delivery in the first and second zones.

After March 16 next books shall be embraced in the fourth class of mail, regular zone rates being applied to parcels or books weighing over eight ounces. Parcels of eight ounces or less will be required to pay one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof.

DANGER AFTER GRIPPE

Lies in Poor Blood, Cough and Worn-Out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia are greatly to be feared at this season. To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly. W. W. Lake of Aberdeen, Miss., says: Grippe left me weak, run-down and with a severe cough from which I suffered for a long time. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol from which I received great benefit. My cough is almost entirely gone and I am strong and well again."

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit you we will give back your money.

P. S. For Eczema of Scalp try our Sazo Salve. We guarantee it.

A check for $500,000 was handed to Cardinal Gibbons yesterday as a contribution for the Catholic University at Washington from the Knights of Columbus of the United States. It is proposed to found fifty scholarships for young men studying for the priesthood at the university. The Knights have been working nearly three years to secure the funds. It is the largest contribution that has been made to the university.

For Frost Bites and Chapped Skin.

For frost bitten ears, fingers and toes; chapped hands and lips, chilblains, old sores, red and rough skin, there is nothing to equal Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Stops the pain at once and heals quickly. In every home there should be a box handy all the time. Best remedy for all skin diseases, itching eczema, tetter, piles, etc. 25c. All druggists, or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

In China in 1842, after the first 35 years of missionary work, there were only 36 converts.—In 1860 there were 967. In 1877 there were 13,900; in 1890, 32,000; in 1896, 191,000. This year, after a little more than a century of missionary endeavor, there are between 300,000 and 400,000.

Wonderful Cough Remedy.

Dr. King's New Discovery is known everywhere as the remedy which will surely stop a cough or cold. D. P. Lawson of Edison, Tenn., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the most wonderful cough, cold, throat and lung medicine I ever sold in my store. It can be beat. It sells without any trouble at all. It needs no guarantee." This is true, because Dr. King's New Discovery will relieve the most obstinate of coughs and colds. Lung troubles quickly helped by its use. You should keep a bottle in the house at all times for all the members of the family. 50c and $1. All druggists, or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Annual losses suffered by New York merchants through commercial frauds aggregate $25,000,000, according to a committee of business men.

Worms The Cause of Your Child's Pains.

A foul, disagreeable breath, dark circles around the eyes, at times feverish, with great thirst; cheeks flushed and then pale, abdomen swollen with sharp cramping pains, are all indications of worms. Don't let your child suffer—KICKAPOO WORM KILLER will give sure relief. It kills the worms—while its laxative effect adds greatly to the health of your child by removing the dangerous and disagreeable effect of worms and parasites from the system. KICKAPOO WORM KILLER as a health producer should be in every household. Perfectly safe. Buy a box to-day. Price 25c. All druggists or by mail, Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

Hon. George Morgan Thomas, 85 years old, well known lawyer and prominent in Kentucky politics, died at his home in Vanceburg.

Do you begin to cough at night, just when you hope to sleep? Do you have a tickling throat that keeps you awake? Just take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It will check the cough and stop the tickling sensation at once. Does not upset the stomach, is best for children and grown people. For sale by all druggists.

Emmett Skinner, a student of the Louisville Training School, was killed by an automobile of Dr. J. B. Thompson in Grand boulevard yesterday afternoon.

An Ideal Woman's Laxative.

Who wants to take salts, or castor oil, when there is nothing better than Dr. King's New Life Pills for all bowel troubles. They act gently and naturally on the stomach and liver, stimulate and regulate your bowels and tone up the entire system. Price 25c. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.

The immediate effect of Wisconsin's new eugenics marriage law, in the first week of its enforcement, has been to reduce the number of licenses issued almost to nothing.

Any skin itching is a temper tester. The more you scratch the worse it itches. Doan's Ointment is for piles, eczema—any itching skin. 50c at all drug stores.

Charles W. Morse, former "Ice King," who served "time" in the Atlanta penitentiary, will ask for a congressional inquiry into the circumstances of his conviction.

Goodbye Dandruff USE PARISIAN SAGE.

If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp—lubricate it—and dandruff disappears.

Surely try a 50c bottle of Parisian Sage. It cleanses the hair, nourishes it, stops falling hair and itching scalp. It is just what you need to make the scalp healthy and immediately remove dandruff.

Secretary McAdoo, of the Treasury Department, has asked Congress for an appropriation of $47,000 with which to establish in some Southern city a hospital for the study of pellagra.

BIRTHS
Relatives and friends here have received news of the birth of a handsome son to Mr. and Mrs. John Cabell Chevalier, at their home at Johnetta. Mrs. Chevalier was formerly Miss Bess Wagner, and the young parents have the best wishes of host of friends for their little one.

A Few Don'ts.
Don't butt in when the other fellow is talking.
Don't slander your neighbor unless you expect slander in return.
Don't make goo-zoo eyes at a pretty girl—her brother may be close at hand.
Don't assume to know it all; something may have happened since you first started to talk.
Don't talk about the freckles on the nose of your neighbor's wife—because a freckle isn't catching.
Don't pretend to be better than you are, because no matter how good you may be, there is always a little bit of the bad that is going to show up sometime.

Don't feel badly if your best girl gives you the marble heart, because it is better that her heart turn to a cold granite slab before than after marriage.
Don't argue politics or religion with your neighbor—just hand him the facts as they appear to you; get out of the way and let 'em soak in. If they don't, you will feel convinced that his mind is idea-proof.

You can't judge of the amount of time a man kills by the amount of time he spends hunting.

DETAIL DRUGGISTS OF RICHMOND SOON TO RECEIVE NEW MEDICINE

"External" Vapor Treatment That Relieves Colds Over Night, Croup in Fifteen Minutes—Coupon Below Good For 25-Cent Package Free.

Richmond people, especially mothers of small children, will be glad to know the new "outside" treatment for colds and croup, that has made such a name in the South, will shortly be introduced here. A number of the leading druggists are arranging to give away these free. If your druggist is one of these, the coupon below will entitle you to receive free a full-size 25-cent package.

This treatment is entirely different from the usual "internal" medicines which disturb the digestion and are especially injurious to the delicate stomach of children.
It is in the form of a salve that is applied externally over the throat and chest. In severe cases it is covered with warm flannel cloth. The heat of the vapor releases the soothing, antiseptic vapors of Eucalyptol, Menthol, which are inhaled with each breath. At the same time the preparation is absorbed through the skin, taking out the mucus and tightness.
In cases of croup a little rubbed over the chest will render the breathing easier in minutes and in fifteen minutes trouble is over. The most severe croup or chest colds are usually relieved in the night. For all bronchial troubles,

We wish all of our customers a Prosperous New Year and it will be our aim during the year 1914 to keep the highest quality groceries, and we hope to be able to serve you when in need of anything in our line. Prompt delivery service. Two phones—35 and 42

Mr. Jett Purchases a Farm.
Mr. Chas. Jett purchased privately of Mrs. Robert Sallee her farm near Kingston, consisting of 150 acres, for $14,000. This is one of the best improved farms in the county and is well worth the price paid. Raymond Jett has moved to the property to reside this year.

Fine Crop.
Mr. T. J. Potts, who resides at Newby, is very proud of the record he made with his tobacco the past season. On three acres of ground he cut 5,200 sticks of tobacco, which weighed 5,300 pounds and when placed on the market last week brought him $866.71, or an average of about 17c a pound.

Mr. Ham Secures Patent.
Mr. Robt. W. Ham, of this county, has been issued a patent on a tobacco setter, the news just reaching him to this effect from Washington. He is receiving congratulations of friends over his invention, which is a great improvement in every way over the tobacco setters in use now.

Public School Children's Soup Fund.
This movement has been in operation one year and in that time has been expended $140 and lunches furnished to 40 poor children for 14 weeks. Voluntary contributions to this fund will be received by the newspapers of Richmond and acknowledged weekly in their columns.

We Have Some Here.
An exchange truthfully remarks that "there too many people in almost every town who will not cast their bread upon the waters unless assured beforehand that it will return again in a few days a fullgrown sandwich, all trimmed with ham, butter and mustard, wrapped in a warranty deed for half the earth and a mortgage on the other half."

Farmers' Week in Lexington.
The meeting of the different farmers' organizations, under the auspices of the Agricultural Department of the State University, at Lexington, proved to be highly instructive as well as largely attended from all over the State. In most instances the halls are not large enough to accommodate the crowd. The meetings were interesting and the discussions most instructive to all present. The program, giving a day and a half to each, was devoted to poultry, corn growing, dairy cattle, horse and swine breeding, tobacco culture, etc. Madison county was well represented at all of the meetings.

"Baby Chickens."
As soon as the season opens there is going to be a wonderful call for "day-old chicks." One farm alone shipped last season about 50,000 day-old chicks. There are some advantages, of course, to be derived from having eggs that are already hatched, "the other man" having the risk of infertile eggs, poor incubators and deformed youngsters. But the purchaser of baby chicks should know his man and even then should require the seller to guarantee the safe arrival of every chick paid for. Another thing to guard against is purchasing chicks from such a distance that the wee ones will suffer on the way, or arrive in bad condition. Distances vary according to the rate of travel and the number of times at railroad stations the coops have to be changed. Buy from breeders near home, but even then secure the guarantee.

A Cure For Love.
When one is in love and wants to get out, all he needs is to take a little serum, according to Maurice De Fleury, the "brain storm" specialist. He makes the serum. He holds that being in love is a state of mental poisoning and rates love as the sixth of the vices, placing alcohol, morphia, cocaine, opium, etc., ahead of it.

Slightly Wounded.
A difficulty occurred Wednesday at the noon hour between two colored section hands, Squire Phelps and Joe Branton, at the L. & N. depot, in which the latter received a bullet wound in the leg. Phelps was given a hearing before Police Judge Dykes on Thursday morning and was fined $100 and 30 days in jail on the charge of carrying concealed weapons. On motion of City Attorney Chenualt the charge of shooting with intent to kill was filed away.

Must Reach Public.
John Wannamaker, one of the most persistent advertisers in the United States, put it this way:
"If you have exactly what 500,000 people want and only 500 people know it, the high quality of your stock will not increase your profit. The satisfaction of knowing that your name stands for good merchandise is a great thing, but it is not apt to become greatly profitable unless the public at large knows it too."

Forty-eight Quarts of Whisky Emptied in Street.
Police Judge Dykes had destroyed on Tuesday morning 48 quarts of whisky and 24 bottles of beer, which was confiscated when Bud McSwain was arrested, charged with having in his possession malt and vinous liquors for purpose of sale. The trial of the offender came up in the police court yesterday morning and McSwain was given a fine of $100 and 30 days in jail. Judge Dykes agreed to suspend the jail sentence with the provision that the liquor be destroyed.
Monday afternoon Ray Gott was given a fine of $100 on the charge of selling whisky.

The police force of Richmond, under the leadership of Chief Powers, propose to break up the illegal sale of whisky, as well as all other violations of law, and from the record they have made since the first of the year there is no evidence of failure. Judge Dykes, who succeeded Judge J. J. Greenleaf on the police court bench, is upholding the splendid record made by his predecessor, and offenders of the law had better steer clear of the police court. In the prosecution Judge Dykes is being ably assisted by City Attorney D. M. Chenualt.

A Correction.
Last week's Climax contained a notice of the wedding of Mr. Hubert Brandenburg and Miss Eva Lewis, of this county, the item being mailed to this office by some one in the city or county. The editor was greatly chagrined when notified by Miss Lewis that our information was erroneous and that no such marriage had taken place at Lexington or elsewhere, and the records seem to bear out her statement. We can conceive of no reason why anyone should wish to embarrass the young people above mentioned, or to place the Climax in the unpleasant attitude of publishing an item of this kind, in good faith, which the informant knew to be false. We cheerfully make the correction.

Madisonians Win at Lexington Poultry Show.
Madison county was well represented at the Lexington poultry show last week and those who entered the contest are rejoicing over premiums that were secured and brought back to this county. Among those who took blue ties are: On Single Comb Black Orpingtons, E. C. Cornelson, this city; Single Comb Brown Leghorns, J. H. Matthews and Mrs. Jno. R. Gibson, this city; Single Comb Black Minorcas, Walter Q. Park, this city; White Rocks, J. C. Neff; Mammoth Bronze Turkeys, Mrs. Clark Rice, Speedwell.

Seriously Injured.
James White, the nine-year-old son of Robert White, met with a serious accident Friday, which came near costing him his life. Young White was visiting at the home of Wm. McCord, on the Boonesboro pike, and with some other children was playing in a tobacco barn, when in some way he lost his balance and was precipitated to the ground, a distance of about 20 feet, landing on his head and terribly lacerating his scalp. He was placed in an automobile and rushed to his home in this city, where medical attention was rendered. A remarkable feature of the accident is that no bones were broken and that the lad escaped with his life.

Prof. Lewis' Address.
Prof. Lewis' address at the Methodist church Friday night was a stirring appeal for the highest kind of patriotism, a patriotism that leads people unceasingly to sacrifice private interests to public good. True patriots, the speaker said, should defend their country against corruption in politics and the illiteracy of our citizenship as zealously as they would any attack of a foreign foe. This was the first of a series of Epworth League lectures. The next of the series will be by Prof. Roscoe Gilmore Stott, of Eastern Normal. His subject will be "Birds That I Would Like to Shoot—And Others," and will be in the nature of a humorous lecture with a practical turn to all he says.

Home Tobacco Warehouse COMPANY

Tobacco Market.
The Home Tobacco Warehouse sold in the week ending Jan. 10 305,755 pounds of tobacco at an average of $13.44. This average was high, considering the quality of the weed offered, there being no fancy stuff on the market. The range of prices was from $13.10 to $26. The market is steady and prices realized generally satisfactory to the grower.
The Madison Tobacco Warehouse reports sales of the past week at 464,000 pounds, a daily average of nearly 93,000 pounds, which netted a general floor average of $13.25 for the entire week.

A Sermon In Rhyme.
There ain't no use in worryin', it does no good to fret; this fear of what the future holds ain't helped man one whit as yet. The fellow who can cut it out for now and for all time, is worth a million dollars, though he may not have a dime. Diseases kill a lot of folks, and wars take lots of men, while big disasters wipe 'em out, oh, every now and then. But though each year they're fatal to a big and mighty host, it's my belief that worry's got 'em beat—it kills the most. You're only here a little while, my friend, so what's the use of lettin' worry get your goat, an' with it raise the deuce? What if old trouble gets you down and soaks you in the eye, you'll find that he can't keep you there—you'll get up by and by. The flowers that you knew last year, the birds that used to sing, may now be gone but they'll return to greet you in the spring. There ain't no good in worryin', of that my friend, there's no doubt, so grit your teeth an' wear a grin an' out the frettin' out.

Woman's Club.
The Woman's Club will meet Monday next. The program will consist of a general discussion of current events by members of the Club. Miss Poyntz will read a paper on Mrs. Browning and her works. Mrs. Jas. W. Caperton will discuss George Sand and her works.
Madison Lodge Entertains.
Madison Lodge I. O. O. F. entertained its members with a social evening, with refreshment, following the conferring of the First Degree on several candidates, Monday night. A full membership was out and the evening was delightfully spent.

A Madison County Boy.
Prof. E. F. Fowler, of Lincoln Memorial University, Harrogate, Tenn., passed through Richmond Sunday, Jan. 11, on his way to New Jersey to enter into holy matrimony. Prof. Fowler is a Madison county boy and his many Richmond friends wish him a happy, prosperous and successful future.

Gardner-Kean Entertainment.
Never in our recollection have we ever attended such a delightful concert and we doubt if a more brilliant performer than Mr. Samuel Gardner has ever visited Richmond before.
The audience was obviously fully aware of the pleasure in store, judging from the unusually punctual attendance and the number that thronged the stage at the close of the performance to congratulate the performers, proved how thoroughly they appreciated the excellent program and the marvelous talent displayed.

Mr. Gardner is a born master of his exquisite instrument and no words of ours can do justice to his performance so perfect was his style and recitation.
Miss Marian Kean is a brilliant pianist for one so young, which she fully proved, not only by the mastery with she performed her difficult recitation of Mendelssohn's variations and Chopin, but by the sympathy evinced in accompanying Mr. Gardner. The appreciation of these fine artists was very marked, by the silent and intent faces of the audience throughout the evening and during the rendering of Mozart's "Intermezzo" and other gems, which needed absolute quietude to be enjoyed to the full, the proverbial pin might have been heard.
Mr. Gardner has evidently a splendid career before him, which we do not hesitate in surmising will be of world-wide reputation, and we share the opinion and wishes of Miss Kean's many friends in advising her to continue in her rare and evident gift as accompanist, as well as soloist.

Rare Honor Comes To Home Doctor.
The following from a Las Vegas, Nevada, paper will be of interest to friends in this city:
"Dr. William S. Park, who practiced dentistry in Las Vegas a few years ago and who intends to resume that profession in a short time, has been chosen as one of the five delegates from Nevada to the World Dental Congress at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, San Francisco, in 1915. He was also selected as one of two men from this State to read a paper on some branch of the dentist's work before the huge Congress. The appointment was made by the head of the Nevada dentists, Dr. D. W. Rulison, of Reno, and as can be understood, is a high honor."
"Dr. Park performed a similar office as delegate and contributor from America to the Paris Exposition of 1900, although he did not cross the Atlantic to be present in person."
Dr. Park is a son of Mr. John S. Park, for many years a resident of this city, and now a banker of Las Vegas, Nevada, who was prominently mentioned as Democratic candidate for governor of that State a few years ago. Dr. Park's mother is a daughter of Judge W. B. Smith, of this city. It's but another case of Kentuckians winning honors wherever they go.

Foot Crushed.
In attempting to mount a fire wagon Monday morning as the department was responding to an alarm, Huston Stone fell beneath the wheels and sustained a badly crushed foot. The injured member was given medical attention and Mr. Stone was removed to his home.

Mr. & Mrs. Young Couple:—

DEATHS
The sympathy of this community is extended to Dr. J. G. Crabbe, of the Eastern Normal School, in the death of his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Baughman, which occurred at Columbus, O., last week. She was 87 years of age and her death was due to a fall of some weeks ago.

The following death notice in the Winchester Sun of a former resident of Madison county will be read with regret by her relatives and friends in this county:
The remains of Mrs. Rebecca Hopper, who died Thursday at the home of her son, Hiram Hopper, on Hill street, were buried here Friday afternoon at 2 p. m., following the service at the home of her son conducted by Rev. J. J. Gilbert. Mrs. Hopper was 70 years of age and her death followed an illness of four months. She came here from Madison county and made her home with her son.
Besides her son, she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thomas, of Irvine, and Mrs. Will Davis, of Berea.

Notwithstanding his critical condition, which had been known for several days, the death Friday morning of John William Farley came as a shock to the community. Deceased had been attending Vanderbilt University, at Nashville, where he contracted typhoid fever, which developed into serious symptoms on his arrival home for the holidays. He was taken to Pattie A. Clay Infirmary, where the most careful nursing and the heroic efforts of his physicians were of no avail. Every attention possible was rendered by loved ones with the hope of staying the ravages of the dread disease which had him in its grasp, and some encouragement was held out until a few days previous to his death, when pneumonia developed and rapidly sapped the life of the young man, whose constitution had bravely battled with the raging fever.

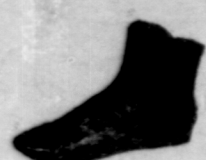

Mr. Farley was the only son of Mr. Jefferson Stone, his father, Wm. L. Farley, having died a number of years ago. He was 20 years of age and is survived by his mother and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Jordan, of Pawnee, and Miss Elizabeth Farley, of this city, all of whom were with him when the final summons came.

Thus death removes a young man in his eager race towards the wider goal of higher and larger accomplishment, at the very threshold of radiant and useful manhood. Had he lived until June he would have graduated in pharmacy at Vanderbilt University, where he had spent several years preparing himself for a useful life.
Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at the residence of his uncle, Mr. Amos Willis, on Collins street, by Rev. E. B. Barnes, of the First Christian church, followed by interment in Richmond Cemetery. The floral offerings of friends of the deceased were most numerous and beautiful, showing the love and esteem in which he was held.
The deepest sympathy of the entire community goes out to the mother and sisters, whose love for this son and brother was beautiful indeed.

Again the people of this community bow their heads in grief and pay loving tribute to one of their best known and most highly respected women, Mrs. Nannie Million Roberts, whose beautiful life came to a close on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at her home in this city. Tuesday morning she arose early, apparently in her usual good health. After preparing the morning meal, she complained of a severe pain in her head. She gradually grew worse and all that medical skill and loving hands could do was done for her, but to no avail. About 8 o'clock she had a severe stroke of paralysis and sank into unconsciousness.

She remained in this state until the insatiable archer, Death, claimed his own. Her affliction caused general regret, and her death has cast a gloom over the entire community. Deceased was born in this county in October, 1852, and was the daughter of Travis and Mary A. Million, life-long residents of the county. She was united in marriage in 1871 to Dr. Phil Roberts, a physician, leader in political affairs, and one of the most charitable and best beloved men in the county. His wife was, indeed, a real helpmeet, and the Roberts home was ever noted for its generosity and hospitality. To this union two children were born—a son and daughter. Roy Roberts, the son, died in 1901. Dr. Roberts, the husband and father, died in 1903, after a brief illness. After the death of her son and husband, Mrs. Roberts and her daughter, Miss Eva Roberts, continued to reside at the old home on South First street. The great adoration mother and daughter cherished for each other was charming and beautiful. They were inseparable companions, sharing alike their joys and sorrows, and both ever ready to give succor to those in need. In the demise of Mrs. Roberts, the community has not only sustained a severe shock, but a grievous loss. A void is left that will be hard to fill. She was a splendid type of womanhood—kind, patient, self-sacrificing—a good neighbor and true friend. Her life is well worthy of emulation. As she crossed the river that marks the Unknown shore, her hands were filled with deeds of charity—the golden key that unlocks the doors of the Palace of Eternity. Her life was devoted to doing good—the noblest virtue that warms the heart of mankind. She was a Christian woman in the highest, broadest and best sense. She is survived by Miss Eva Roberts, her daughter; Mrs. Mary A. Million, her mother, now in her eightieth year; Mr. B. L. Million, a brother, and Mrs. Jeff Potts, of the county, all of whom have the deepest sympathy of everyone in the entire community. Funeral services were conducted at the residence at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon by Rev. E. B. Barnes, pastor of the First Christian church, she being a devoted member of that denomination. The remains were laid to rest in the Richmond Cemetery beneath a "wilderness of flowers."

KINGSTON.
Rev. D. L. Brandenburg, of Wilmore, filled his appointment at this place Saturday and Sunday.
While on his way to Richmond Friday Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Powell came near having a serious accident. The coupling of their buggy broke and the horse becoming frightened, ran from A. R. Gibbs' house almost to Richmond. The buggy was completely demolished, but fortunately the occupants were not seriously hurt. Mrs. Powell received a few minor bruises.
Twin babies were born Wednesday to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mundy. The little ones lived but a few hours.
Misses Eva Lewis and Lydia Young, students at the Normal School, at Richmond, visited home folks here from Saturday till Monday.
Mr. John Powell has sold his farm to C. F. Parks. The people of this vicinity regret very much to see Mr. Powell and family leave this community, and we extend our best wishes to them wherever they may go. We congratulate Mr. Parks and hope he will find a happy home with us.
Messrs. J. T. Cornelson and Charley Yonable were in Richmond Thursday on business.
Quite a number of hog buyers have been in this community during the past week.
Mr. Wesley Webb had the misfortune to lose by death a fine Jersey heifer.
Mr. Cam Lewis sold a bunch of shoats Saturday.
Mrs. G. W. Moody is visiting her sister, Mrs. M. G. Ward, in Harlan.

WONDERFUL MONEY SAVING OPPORTUNITIES IN A

Monster January CLEARANCE Sale

The winter season has not reached its end. We find ourselves with quite some merchandise on hand that should have been sold long ago. In order to convert this stock into money, we have decided to hold a reduction sale that will make new history for our town. Its going to be an event that the public for miles around will be compelled to take advantage of. We want every family to share in the "good times." Never in the history of this town were there such opportunities for saving money. The "Mark Down Man" has gone through the entire store with his keen-edged knife sharpened like a razor, and what he has done to prices will startle our readers. The stocks, new and fresh as they are, must be closed out quickly as they have been here longer than they should. There is no time to figure the cost to us. We cheerfully pocket our loss, feeling that by so doing we will make hundreds of new friends besides clinching the confidence of hundreds of old ones. ITS BETTER THAN PUTTING YOUR MONEY IN THE BANK TO BUY AT THIS STUPENDOUS SALE. You should get here as early as possible if you want choicest picking. It will be well worth your while—the savings are immense

A DOLLAR WILL BUY TWO DOLLARS WORTH AND MORE

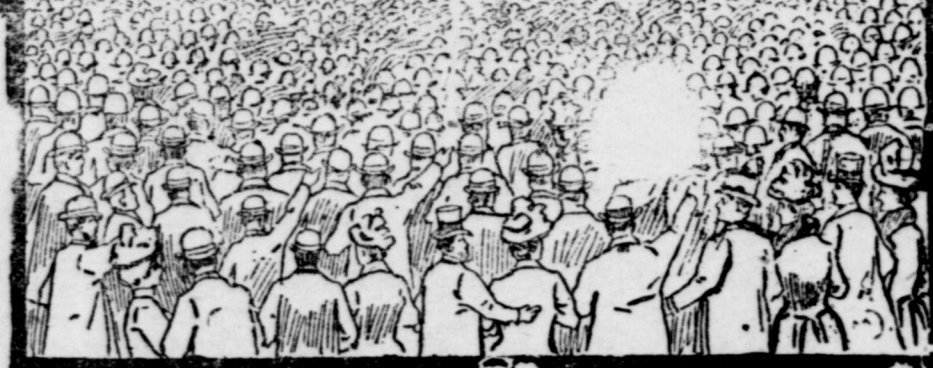

The Greatest Bargain Feast ever offered—and winter has just begun. You can buy more for your money during this sale than ever before. Come to this great sale and make us prove it.

Save money by buying Lace Curtains, Draperies, Carpets, Mattings, Rugs and Oil Cloth NOW

THE REASON FOR THIS BIG SALE

To those who have visited our store lately the reason for this sale is plain—simply this—Too Great A Stock. We must reduce this stock. Never before have we been so well prepared to furnish the needs of the people of Richmond and Madison county as we are now. Expecting an early winter we bought far too heavy in all departments. Our inventory shows entirely too many goods. WE MUST SELL. We have cut the price in many cases LESS THAN HALF

To those who have attended the E. V. Elder Mill End Sales it is unnecessary for us to describe in detail the effort that has been made throughout our entire house to assure the success of this Mill End Sale for they know what we have done in the past and we are simply going to do it again
